

RSB focuses on creating sophisticated living environments either as new build or superior restorations.

“ The RSB approach to enhancing prime residential property is a refreshing concept; they present our mutual clients with a new service in this market combining performance with strategic advice having added value at the core of the philosophy. We are delighted to be working together. ”

Stuart Flint MRICS Partner, Knight Frank

Each project is approached individually with dedication, professionalism and proficiency. Our expertise lies in producing contemporary settings through to more sensitive traditional touches depending on the job in hand.

RSB takes a project from drawing board to completion. Our extensive client portfolio includes listed property restorations, cutting-edge apartment refurbishments and construction of exclusive new builds.
